Blitz captive bolt stunner KIT

Blitz

Please note that the term 'Stunner' is used for captive bolt tools rather than 'killer'. This is because the humane killing of livestock is a two stage process. Firstly the animal must be effectively stunned by the propulsion of the bolt into the brain, rendering it immediately unconscious and insensible to pain. The stun must be immediately followed by the severing of the major blood vessels in the neck or thorax, or by the use of a pithing rod

- Great versatility in adapting power of cartridges
- Portable and easy-to-maintain
- Easy to store thanks to carrying case
- Secured transport and storage

Everything needed within reach, in a strong and convenient carrying case

The licensing of Slaughtermen

2. No person shall carry out any of the operations specified in paragraph 3 below except:

1. under and in accordance with the terms of a licence granted and registered under paragraph 5 below;
2. under and in accordance with the terms of a licence issued by a local authority under the Slaughter of Poultry Act 1967 ("the 1967 Act") (a), the Slaughterhouses Act 1974 ("the 1974 Act")(b), the Slaughter of Animals (Scotland) Act 1980 ("the 1980 Act") (c) or any regulations made under any of those Acts; or
3. under and in accordance with the terms of a provisional licence granted under paragraph 7 below.

Operations which require a licence

3. The operations mentioned in paragraph 2 above for which a licence is required are any of the following:

1. the restraint of any animal for the purpose of stunning, slaughtering or killing that animal;
2. the stunning of any animal;
3. the slaughter of any animal;
4. the killing of any animal;
5. the pithing of any stunned animal;
6. the assessment of effective stunning, pithing or killing of any animal by any person whose duty it is to make such an assessment;
7. the shackling or hoisting of any stunned animal; and
8. the bleeding of any animal which is not dead.

Certificates of competence

4. - (1) In this Schedule "certificate of competence" means:

1. a certificate issued under sub-paragraph (2) below by a veterinary surgeon authorised for the purpose by the Minister ("an authorised veterinary surgeon");
2. a certificate issued by a veterinary surgeon which accompanied an application for a licence under the Slaughter of Poultry (Licences and Specified Qualifications) Regulations 1991 ("the 1991 Regulations") (d) in accordance with Regulation 5(1)(a)(i) and Schedule 1 thereto;
